

The Farmers of Manitoba - Collecting Stories project aims at gathering stories of the past, present and even the future of farming in our province to contribute to the Farmers of Manitoba exhibit at the Manitoba Agricultural Museum, scheduled for the summer of 2020.

Farming holds a special place in Manitoba's identity and heritage and the Manitoba Agricultural Museum is committed to tell the stories of our province's agricultural heritage. Who better than a farmer to tell these stories?

As Manitoba celebrates 150 years as a province, the Manitoba Agricultural Museum needs you to contribute your farming story, whether it is yours, one of your ancestor's or even the future generation of farming, by showcasing yourself or someone you know and telling your/their story! Send us a portrait this farmer and their story (see more information on how to participate on the back)!

The photos and stories will be added to the museum's collections and be used to better tell the story of agriculture in Manitoba, potentially through online projects, programming and temporary or permanent exhibits. Our first project including these stories will be an exhibit produced at the summer of 2020!

The Manitoba Agricultural Museum is excited of having our Manitoba farmers collaborate to this project and tell their stories of agriculture!

About the Manitoba Agricultural Museum

The Manitoba Agricultural Museum, located in Austin MB, is a registered charity dedicated to the collection, preservation, interpretation and demonstration of Manitoba's agricultural heritage. It holds one of the largest collections of vintage farm equipment in Canada and an extensive collection of household artifacts presented in the 25 buildings of the Homesteaders' Village. It offers exciting special events and programming, including its annual signature festival, the Manitoba Threshermen's Reunion & Stampede.

How to contribute?

Are you a farmer in Manitoba?

Do you know farmers in Manitoba or did your ancestors farm in Manitoba?

If you have stories about farming in Manitoba, whether from past generations, farmers of today or little ones that might become farmers of the future, you can contribute to the project!

To do so, send us a portrait of the farmer you wish to present and fill out the Farmers of Manitoba - Collecting Stories Participation Form.

Participation can be sent online or in the mail or provided in person at the museum office by April 15, 2020.

Participations are on a volunteer basis, no honorarium will be provided.

Feel free to contact the Museum Office for more information on this project!
